About the Presenter

Scott Bellini, PhD is the Assistant Director of the Indiana Resource Center for Autism (IRCA) and an Assistant Professor of School Psychology at Indiana University, Bloomington. He is also the Director of the newly formed Social Skills Research Center (SSRC), a university based center specializing in developing and empirically examining the outcomes of social skill interventions for youth with ASD. He is a licensed psychologist in the state of Indiana and an endorsed Health Services Provider in Psychology. He is the author of the book, Building Social Relationships, which was named the 2007 Literary Work of the Year by the Autism Society of America.

Training Description

The workshop will provide an overview of a social skill instructional model developed by Dr. Bellini. The workshop integrates research on social-emotional functioning with effective strategies for teaching social skills to children and adolescents with autism spectrum disorders (ASD). The five-step model provides a systematic and comprehensive framework to guide parents and practitioners in the development and implementation of social skills programming.

Training Objectives

- Increase knowledge of social and emotional functioning
- Increase awareness of the relationship between social skill deficits and social anxiety
- Develop skills necessary to assess social functioning
- Increase awareness of skill acquisition versus performance deficits
- Develop skills necessary to implement social skills strategies
- Increase awareness of available social skill strategies

DIRECTIONS TO TRAINING LOCATION
