Autism & UF: Together We CAN Conference

Hosted by: UF-Gainesville Center for Autism & Related Disabilities (UF CARD) and UF Health Center for Autism and Neurodevelopment (UFH CAN)

About the Conference

This two-day conference will consist of a series of sessions on a variety of topics related to current research and intervention in autism spectrum disorder (ASD).

Conference Description

Target Audience: (educators, researchers, administrators, professionals, individuals with ASD & family members)

The Autism & UF Conference is an annual conference aimed at providing high quality professional development to a variety of professionals, including educators, researchers, mental health counselors, psychologists, occupational, physical, and speech therapists, physicians, and caregivers involved in the lives of individuals with ASD. This event will consist of two days of 1-1.5-hour sessions on the latest research and intervention in the field of ASD. Topics will include but are not limited to: systems of care for children & youth with ASD, transition to adulthood, and teaching selfadvocacy. Full schedule will be posted to the conference website once it has been finalized. Participants also will have an opportunity to peruse research posters during the event.
