

Strategies for Writing Instruction in the Elementary Classroom

Presented by: Dr. Miller

Hosted by: FAU CARD

About the Presenter

Katie M. Miller, Ph.D., is an Assistant Professor of Exceptional Student Education at Florida Atlantic University (FAU) on the Boca Raton campus. She received her doctorate in Exceptional Student Education at the University of Central Florida (UCF). Her research focus is examining evidence-based interventions infusing technology to increase academic performance for students with disabilities. She has a particular interest in Self-Regulated Strategy Development (SRSD) in writing. Dr. Miller is passionate about teacher education and finding best practices for increasing special education teacher efficacy.

Training Description

Teachers will be provided specific strategies for common problems that students with ASD face with written expression, as well as ways to measure writing growth.

Training Objectives

Participants will be able to:

- Identify common problems that students with ASD face while writing.
- Describe some solutions to address each area of writing deficit.
- Identify some curriculum-based measures for writing in the elementary classroom.

When:

December 1, 2021 - January 31, 2022

Where:

Online

Duration:

1-hour pre-recorded webinar

Register to view online:

Register here

Registration is mandatory. Once registered, you will receive a link to view the presentation online.

You must fill out the form at this Certificate of Completion link.

Please write down the code shared by the presenter during the training, once registered you will receive a link to enter the code.

For more information contact:

Mercedes Pagano
paganom@fau.edu
or (561) 212-8058

CARD@fau.edu
or (561) 297-2023

Be sure to contact your ESE District Staff or Staff Development Contact to determine the process for receiving in-service.