

Everything You Need to Know From Your Local Transition Providers

Presented by: Various Local Providers & Agencies

Hosted by: UF Health/Jacksonville CARD - UF Health FDLRS-MDC

About the Presenters

This presentation will feature local service providers and agencies who specifically work with and provide services for adults with disabilities. Representatives from the Agency for Persons with Disabilities, Vocational Rehabilitation, Project 10, the University of North Florida and Florida State College at Jacksonville's programs for disabilities, and others will speak about the programs and services they offer.

Training Description

Target Audience: Caregivers and professionals of people with disabilities

This training will consist of a series of presentations from local service providers in Jacksonville for adults with disabilities. Each agency provider will discuss in detail the services that their organization provides and how individuals and caregivers can access these services. Critical elements of the individualized education plan (IEP) for transitioning individuals will be addressed. A question-and-answer segment will be offered at the end of the session with the entire panel.

Training Objectives

Participants will be able to:

- Identify transition IEP goals and objectives to lay the proper foundation for transition for students with disabilities.
- Understand the array of local resources available to adults with disabilities.
- Have the opportunity to ask questions directly to their local transition service providers.
